I. Policy

On occasions, police personnel are requested or invited to make public appearances or appearances on radio or television in an official capacity. Employees must use discretion in accepting such invitations, taking into consideration the position of the department and the topic to be discussed. Whenever possible, employees should advise a supervisor prior to such appearance. Public appearances concerning a topic of a sensitive nature will be referred to the Chief of Police.

When dealing with the media General Order 5.09 will apply.
